Dear Parents and Carers,

26th October 2021

We have cancelled the scheduled CURRICULUM DAY which was to be held on Monday 1st November.

Since the Victorian “Roadmap” now allows for all children to return to school full-time FROM Monday 1st November, we did not want to disappoint any of our students by not re-opening from remote learning as soon as we could.

Tuesday 2nd November remains a public holiday for the Melbourne Cup. School will be closed on that day.

The CURRICULUM DAY has been transferred to 17th December. Children will now finish school for 2021 on 16th December at 1.30pm.

Children who have been required to isolate and present a Day 13 negative COVID test will not be allowed to return on 1st November unless their period of 14 days isolation finishes on or before the 1st November.

Again, we remind parents and carers to be very cautious if your children report feeling unwell. If they attend school and do turn out to be COVID positive, all of their classmates and their teachers are prevented from attending school for two weeks.

Yours sincerely,

Kevin Mackay

Principal
